New Programs:	Our Quest classrooms are reporting positive feedback from families. They are implementing the EIE curriculum and providing depth to grade level standards. Academies: Business Academy is getting some press! Code Green and Lauryn Bloodworth were featured in Ebony Magazine. https://www.ebony.com/career-finance/code-green-how-north-carolina-teens-are-determined-to-save-the-earth-with-their-environmental-enterprise/

	The Business Academy will be partnering with Charlotte Motor Speedway. Parents, Students and staff will volunteer to cleanup after races. Bottles collected will go towards making our eco friendly shirts. In exchange engineers from the speedway will volunteer their time to speak with our students. Innovation Academy: Students are beginning work on their Future City Competition Projects. This year's theme is waste management, where students will research and design ways that cities can decrease waste, use waste to create energy, and innovate new ways to manage waste. Leadership Academy: Our students are working on establishing student government and have begun looking at school-wide improvement initiatives as well as some ideas to raise money for student events.
Upcoming Events:	Curriculum Nights: We will hold virtual curriculum nights via Zoom. Each teacher will present
Covid-19 Update	We are using a weekly Covid Dashboard to share Covid Case numbers in elementary, middle and with staff. To date we have had 6 elementary cases, 3 middle school cases and 0 staff. We are in communication with the Meck Health Department and following their guidance.
